MERRY CHRISTMAS

WORDS OF WISDOM FROM PASTOR KIM

Dear Friends,

Visions are hard to sustain. Isaiah's vision of a peaceable kingdom is often replaced by other realities. When I was very young and living in a rural area of West Virginia, I used to ride my bicycle down to a meadow where I could be all alone. I would lie on the grass, looking up at the sky and was sure that God was coming down to me in the sunbeams that streaked the blueness of the sky with gold. Later, I was not so sure.

Annie Dillard, poet of nature, wrote of a young woman who had her sight surgically restored after being blind from birth:

"When her doctor took her bandages off and led her into the garden, the girl who was no longer blind said, 'the tree with the lights in it!' It was for this tree I searched through the peach orchards of summer, in the forests of fall and down winter and spring for years. Then one day I was walking along Tinker Creek thinking of nothing at all and I saw the tree with the lights in it. I saw the backyard cedar where the mourning doves roost charged and transfigured, each cell buzzing with flames. I stood on the grass with the lights in it, grass that was wholly fire, utterly focused and utterly dreamed. It was less like seeing than like being for the first time seen, knocked breathless by a powerful glance. The flood of the fire abated, but I'm still spending the power."

Visions don't last, but that doesn't mean they aren't real. You may have sensed God's presence in a special way in a time of silence, in the midst of nature's beauty, or in the midst of a great tragedy. It was your "tree with the lights in it." Remember it. Hold it close. Moses saw the burning bush only once - and the vision didn't last long. Moses had to go on to another place, but the mystery of his vision gave meaning to his daily world the rest of his life. Mystery often does that. May you open your eyes to mystery this Advent season. May you leave room to find or remember your own "tree with the lights in it."

Pastor Kim

COVENANT TO CARE

THANKSGIVING FOOD BAG PROJECT

Thank you to Phyllis Tranzillo for leading this vital outreach program and to everyone who participated in this wonderful project.

The United Methodist Church of Danbury demonstrated our commitment to help at-risk families in the Danbury community and share our blessings. By sharing our gifts we show God’s love to others.

Thank you

We would like to thank everyone who brought in shoeboxes for Operation Christmas Child.

Christmas Pageant

Rehearsals have begun for this year’s Christmas Pageant. The Pageant will be on Sunday, December 18. While we have most of the speaking parts filled, we are still in need for angels, shepherds and some innkeepers. If you haven’t received your part, don’t worry, we’ll be rehearsing for the pageant every Sunday during Sunday school through December 18.

Weekly Devotionals for Middle/High School & Elementary School

Starting this Advent season we will be posting a weekly devotional on the Sunday School page of our church website.

Random Acts of Kindness

Our young disciples had the pleasure of speaking with Kaitlin Roig-DeBellis to learn that kindness, compassion and empathy help to create positive changes for others. Not only did our young disciples have excellent suggestions of how they can be kind to others, but they had many examples of how they have actively shown or been shown kindness. We would like to invite our Sunday School class members, no matter your age, to make actively choosing kindness a part of their everyday lives. We will create some space on the bulletin board in the hall for you to tack on some suggestions or examples of how you have chosen kindness.

Remember, “No act of kindness, no matter how small, is ever wasted” ~Aesop

TRUSTEE UPDATE

CHURCH CONCERNS

1. Casa de Oriaco Space User Agreement was completed by Larry and discussed. It was decided that safe sanctuary for children should be in all contracts going forward. After consideration the agreement was accepted as written. We will be monitoring their use of our facilities for the first two months.
2. Chuck Vietrogoski went over the research he has done on the Rosemarie Feeley Memorial plaque. We will continue to research the options in conjunction with the landscaping of the sign area. Mary Lou Heyel will meet with Mike's Landscaping for assistance with plant choice and placement. We are hoping we can complete this project within a budget of $500.

CHURCH GROUND CONCERNS

1. Grass cutting by Jose has been stopped for the season.
2. Jose will continue as our snow removal provider.
3. He must be notified each year for each of this services.

PARSONAGE CONCERNS

Fall leaf removal and tree trimming will be necessary. Larry will email for volunteers.

FURTHER DISCUSSION

The question of a search for a provider of carpeting for the sanctuary was introduced. Larry has made contact with a vendor and an appointment will be scheduled in the next 2 weeks. Mary Lou Heyel volunteered to begin the search and will attend the meeting with the carpet vendor.

CHURCH COUNCIL UPDATE

MANY THANKS

After four years as Chair of the Church Council, I want to extend my sincere thanks to everyone I had the opportunity to work with.

Some of the issues we dealt with - especially the roof repairs - were very challenging. However, I had an amazing number of smart, hard-working and devoted individuals whose faith made the impossible, possible.

With Phyllis Tranzillo taking over as Chair in January, I know she will bring much energy, insight and gifts to the position and add immeasurably to the future success of our church.

AASTA MOSER AWARD 2016

To mark the 25th anniversary as a 5 STAR unit the United Methodist Women honored Barbara Fulton and Chris Russock with Special Membership Awards at worship services on Sunday, November 6. Award money was given in their names and used for mission. Our honorees each received a pin and a certificate. The Special Membership Award at the Danbury United Methodist Church is called the Aasta Moser Award. It was named for a former pastor's wife.

Our first honoree, Barbara Fulton is a long-time member of this church, and has made the church the center of her life. She has stepped up to assume many leadership positions. With her special love for children she taught Sunday school for twenty-seven years and was Superintendent for five years. She started the Church Book Club. She regularly checks on the needs of our home-bound members. Her love and caring are a benefit to many. She seems to have boundless energy and shares her talents with her community. Most notably she is the coordinator for Senior Bridge at the Danbury Senior Center, and she has been the Director of the Long Ridge Library for many years.

Our second honoree, Christine Russock, felt drawn to the Danbury Church. Right from the beginning she balanced a full-time job with fervent dedication to the church. Her leadership skills became evident to all who had the privilege to work with her. As chairperson of the Pastor Parish Committee she guided the committee as they had to make several crucial decisions about staffing. Recently she has served as the Chair of the Church Council. Her cool head and encouraging demeanor guided the Council during tough years with budget and capital improvement decisions. Christine also takes time to bring people to church and to the meetings of the United Methodist Women. She quietly helps others and supports the work of many at the Danbury United Methodist Church.

We are honored to have these two fine women working so hard in our church and our community. May God bless both of them!
