WORDS OF WISDOM FROM PASTOR KIM

As we continue the journey through Lent, the 40 day season of spiritual preparation for Easter, it's a good time to take stock and ask ourselves the traditional Wesleyan question: "How goes it with your soul?" "How goes it" with your soul as you journey to the cross with Jesus Christ?

As I said in last Sunday's sermon, Lent is a season filled with contradictions. It is a season during which we are invited to take a hard look at our failures, but also one in which we are reminded who we are and where we belong. It is a season during which we are asked to repent but also one during which we are reminded how very much God loves us.

An image that I am finding helpful in my own spiritual journey through Lent this year is that of the Good Shepherd: the shepherd who protects; watches over, and offers abundance. Left to our own de-vices, we humans get into all manner of difficulties. Facing challenges of all sorts, the journey would be so much more difficult if we were left alone to find our own way. But we are not left alone: we have a shepherd to guide us and lead us through treacherous passes into meadows of comfort.

As I was reflecting on the image of God as our Good Shepherd, I happened upon the 23rd Psalm from The Message translation of the Bible. In my younger days, I was something of a purist in terms of wanting to rely only the Revised Standard Version of the Bible (which I learned in seminary is closest to the original Hebrew and Greek texts of the Bible, respectively). However, I have felt for some time now that whatever avenue gets us closer to God is the avenue we should take, and that avenue may be more contemporary translations of the Bible in our devotional studies. I encourage you to experiment to find the translation that makes God the most accessible to you.

Along those lines, I offer you the words from the 23rd Psalm from The Message translation of the Bible for your own Lenten contemplation:

Psalm 23 (The Message)

God, my shepherd! I don't need a thing.
You have bedded me down in lush meadows, you find me quiet pools to drink from.
True to your word, you let me catch my breath and send me in the right direction.

Even when the way goes through Death Valley,
I'm not afraid when you walk at my side. Your trusty shepherd's crook makes me feel secure.

You serve me a six-course dinner right in front of my enemies.
You revive my drooping head; my cup brims with blessing.

Your beauty and love chase after me every day of my life.
I'm back home in the house of God for the rest of my life.

Blessings in Christ,

Pastor Kim

A LENTEN LETTER FROM THE BISHOPS OF THE NORTHEASTERN JURISDICTION

The season of Lent invites us, individually and collectively, to a deep assessment of and prayer filled reflection on our faithfulness and fruitfulness. At times, we use Lent to anticipate the coming of the resurrected Christ without taking the gift of these 40 days to also examine our faith; to intentionally concentrate on our faithful response as disciples. Lent is a journey we take with Christ and one another. It is a journey that helps us to focus on our discipleship formation beginning with the reminder of our shared humanity on Ash Wednesday; traveling through the days of searching and repentance to the eager anticipation of Palm Sunday, experiencing the solemn and sorrow filled journey to the cross on Good Friday, and then celebrating the empty tomb on Easter Sunday.

As we begin this Lenten journey, “we are reminded of the mercy and forgiveness proclaimed in the Gospel of Jesus Christ and the need we all have to renew our faith. We invite you, in the name of the Church, to observe a holy Lent: by self-examination and repentance; by prayer, fasting and self-denial; and by reading and meditating on God’s Holy Word.”

Why do we accept this invitation and enter this kind of journey? We enter this journey because we are called to reflect on how our faithful response to Christ bears fruit in our own lives and in the lives of those around us. As Jesus made the ultimate sacrifice to bring us new life, we too are called to bring new life to our congregations, neighborhoods, and communities, called to live as resurrection people.

Our call to live as a resurrection people is especially important in these uncertain and anxious times. As our beloved United Methodist Church prepares for General Conference 2020, we know these practices of the Lenten journey will prepare our hearts, minds and spirits for whatever future God holds for the people of The United Methodist Church, and there is a future! While plans and legislation tend to consume our focus and tempt us from fully engaging in Christ’s mission, our God calls us to stay focused on our reason for being. No matter the result of General Conference 2020, Jesus will be Lord, and the mission of “making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world” will continue.

As we move towards our Lenten opportunity and General Conference, we invite you to join us in a deep season of fasting and prayer. We invite you to an even deeper listening of God and one another. As we engage in conversation and discernment together, may a deeper respect and love for one another permeate all that we think, say, and do. Together, let us reflect and build upon our faithfulness to God so that we might experience the joys of fruitfulness that come with the journey of discipleship. For even in the midst of our current wilderness, God’s desire is that we might bear fruit to whomever God places in our paths and wherever discipleship leads us.

So, let us travel this path together, allowing the fruit of the Spirit to be evident, knowing that if we do this, our future will be one where God’s people will not be shattered and bruised, but blessed and strengthened to be the community of faith God calls us to be. We, your NEJ bishops, united in love of God and one another, remain steadfast in providing spiritual leadership that unapologetically calls the Church to her mission and invites you to this faithful discipline.

While there is much uncertainty in many things, Jeremiah 29:11 reminds us of God’s unfailing certainty – “For I know the plans I have for you,” declares the Lord, “plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.”

Yours in servant leadership,
The Bishops of the Northeastern Jurisdiction

THE CHURCH AND CORONAVIRUS...TAKING PRECAUTIONS

As all of you are aware, we are living in uncertain times right now with multiple updates a day re: the spread of CoVid- 19 (Coronavirus). The theme of most of the messages we are hearing seems to be: Don't panic but be prepared.

Bishop Bickerton sent out a pastoral letter just yesterday asking that we all pray for those affected by the virus as well as health care workers on the front line and for speed in developing a vaccine. He indicated that the virus has so far not affected anyone in our Conference, but it has affected persons within our Conference bounds, in Westchester county and NYC. He urged calm and suggested that each church develop measures to help congregants feel safe and comfortable while attending worship. Early this week, the NY Times published an article called: "Worship in the Age of Coronavirus: Prayer, Elbow Bumps, and Hand Sanitizer."

Marti Foster is our Contingency Coordinator here at UMCD. He has professional training in Disaster Preparedness as well as Pandemic Planning. Even before we received the Bishop's letter, Marti and Pastor Kim consulted and have come up with the following measures that we are asking everyone to observe for the time being in order to air on the side of caution:

- 1. During the Passing of the Peace, everyone should avoid shaking hands. Elbow bumping is gaining currency as a friendly alternative or a simple friendly hello is fine.*
- 2. Holding hands during prayer times should be avoided for now.*
- 3. Although we will continue to monitor the situation, given that the virus has now been detected in a county just south of us, Communion will probably not be offered the first Sunday in April. The virus is transmitted when we have contact with a contaminated object or person and then touch our mouth, nose, or eyes. The preparation, giving and receiving of Communion inevitably involves some "common touching" that it would be safer to avoid for now. In addition, Pastor Kim was informed that some people dipped the bread but never ate it this past Sunday, which suggests that several people had concerns about this.*
- 4. During the Time for Young Disciples, the mic and other objects will not be passed around for common touching.*
- 5. Treats prepared for Fellowship Hour should be individually wrapped. If you touch anything on the fellowship table, please take it.*
- 6. Anyone preparing or serving food at any church dinner or function should wear gloves.*
- 7. Constant hand washing is critical, with hand sanitizer a back up. Hand sanitizer should be on the Fellowship Table and on any table serving food. Unfortunately, hand sanitizer is currently in short supply, so persons should carry their own.*

Finally, we will distribute a bulletin insert this Sunday called Coronavirus and the Church, which has general suggestions helpful to everyone.

While some of you may think some of these measures extreme, we believe most people in our church will welcome these "abundance of caution" measures. We want people to have confidence that they can continue to come to church and we will do everything possible to create a safe environment.

Feel free to contact Marti by email at martifostr@aol.com with any comments or questions, or Pastor Kim.

Blessings,
Marti Foster

Please help us continue our mission as a welcoming family of disciples who seek to strengthen our faith and allow the light of Christ to guide us as we serve our community.

To do so, please consider making a donation to our church either on a one-time basis or as a recurring contribution. You may do so online by clicking the donate button found below. As in previous years, you may also mail a donation to the attention of the Treasurer, UMC of Danbury, 5 Clapboard Ridge Road, Danbury, CT 06811.

Congregants may pay weekly or monthly pledges online using the same donation button found below. The donation button will take you to a page where you can make your pledge in a secure manner. However, as in the past, you still have the option to use the pledge envelopes and place them in the donation plate during Sunday worship

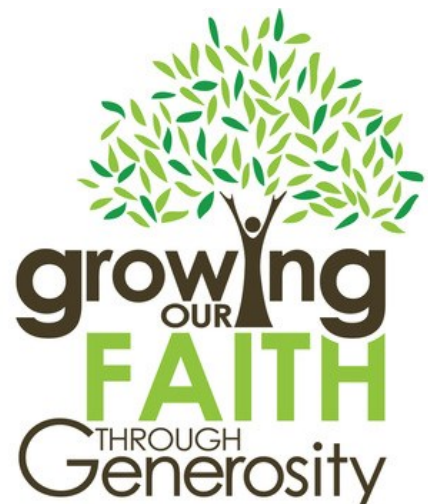

When donating online for the first time, you must create a donor profile. You will see the link to do so on the right-hand side of the "Online Donation" page. All pledges are posted to our general fund. Your pledge will also be entered on your membership account so that it will appear on your quarterly giving statement.

The Online Donation page also provides the option to pay for altar flowers.

Electronic giving is fast and secure – and reduces administrative costs. It is also our hope that this will allow more of our precious resources to go towards the important work that we do.

TUESDAY, MARCH 31 AT 7:00PM

The next United Methodist Women's meeting will be Tuesday, March 31, 2020, at 7:00 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall at the church. There will be a dessert social following the meeting. The program "Meeting God's Call to Transform Communities" will highlight some of the community groups that are represented in our UMW community. We will be encouraged to continue to create opportunities for families so that all may have enough to thrive.

Our speaker will be the new Executive Director of Amos House, Ms. Lisa Casagrande Koeppel. Amos House is a residential living facility, for women and children, located in Danbury. It is not a shelter, but a comprehensive program where residents obtain life skills, job skills, counseling and support in a safe environment. The participants are referred by agencies and must complete a rigorous application process. They transition to independence within two years.

Our unit will be looking to donate some items from their wish list. Try to make every effort to attend. This meeting is open to all women in the church. If you have any questions, concerns or you need a ride please call Karlene Lombardo at 203-743-1260.

Dear Church Family and Friends,

Thank you so much for the beautiful floral arrangement sent to the church for my mother's memorial service. It was a wonderful surprise. All your prayers and notes of concern and support over the course of my mother's illness and subsequent passing has been a tremendous source of comfort for me during this difficult time. I shared some of the emails the church office sent out to the congregation with my brothers, This sense of community is less apparent in their respective large congregations, I continue to be touched by your love and care as I grieve and move forward.

Love in Christ,

Janet Hinderliter
